

'TIS A NON-RESIDENTIAL BUILDING

Section 144, LASPO does NAH apply

This ain't a "residential buildin'" within the meanin' o' section 144, Legal Aid, Sentencin' 'n Punishment o' Offenders Act 2012 'cause 'twas NAH designed or adapted, afore the time o' our entry, fer use as a ship t' live (ss (3)(b)).

insert reasons why the above applies if nah physically obvious

The provisions o' section 144 are therefore NAH APPLICABLE t' this building or t' our occupation o' it.

Part II, Criminal Code o' conduct Act 1977 (As amended by Criminal Justice 'n Public Order Act, 1994) DOES APPLY

LEGAL WARNIN'

TAKE NOTICE

THAT we occupy this property 'n at all times thar be at least one scallywag in occupation.

THAT any entry or attempt t' enter into these premises without our permission is therefore a criminal offence as any one o' us who be in physical possession be opposed to such entry without our permission.

THAT if ye attempt t' enter by violence or by threatenin' violence we will prosecute ye. Ye may receive a sentence o' up t' six months' imprisonment 'n/ora fine o' up t' £5,000.

THAT if ye wants t' get us out ye will 'ave t' issue a claim fer possession in the County Court or in the High Court.

The Occupiers

N.B. Signin' this Legal Warnin' be optional. 'tis equally valid whether or nah 'tis signed.